

Dear Students,

Have you been using Nookstudy? It's a free e-textbook application for PC and Mac.

It's a whole new way of studying. Customize it for more effective results. This application will allow you to upload your documents, organize your books and documents by course, open one or multiple books in one view. As you read, you can highlight, underline, add asterisks, question marks and notes. You can search for texts and your notes in the book or across your library. You may also lookup for a word or a phrase in Google, Wikipedia, Dictionary.com, and YouTube. The possibilities are endless.

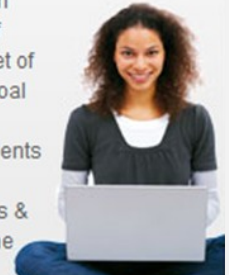

To find out more, click on each of these boxes and see what students and professors say about the Nookstudy. Make sure to click on the box below to check out the Nookstudy features and watch these must-see (1+ min.) videos "Study on the Go" and "Prepare for a Test".

We hope you will find this educational tool a useful one.

Take care,
 EOPS Staff

Designed for Students by Students

The NOOKstudy pilot program brought together hundreds of students, across a diverse set of colleges, with the common goal of designing a powerful application for students. Students and professors provided feedback and ideas to Barnes & Noble, making NOOKstudy the ultimate study tool.
