

SLOs for ADST 105

- SLO #1. A student will be able to describe the specific action and effects of psycho-active drugs on the human brain and body.
- SLO #2. The student will be able to surmise the history of alcohol and drugs and compare and contrast how it plays a role in today's society.
- SLO #3. A student will be able to evaluate and different types of prevention and treatment modalities as to how effective they may be for a particular client(s)