Approval of Minutes :

MSC/(Aziskhanova/Dominguez) Apr. 17, 2013 minutes

Additional Agenda Items: None

Announcements: None

Information Items:

- A. Health Care Reform presentation is scheduled for Saturday, August 10, 2013 from 10-3 pm at the Costa y Valles Field Office. Discussions include legal requirements and what employers have to tell employees. Volunteers are encouraged to attend the presentation and should RSVP by August 2nd as space is limited.

- B. CalPERS is going to have board elections and Michael Bilbrey is running for the board again. He got onto the board because someone resigned. He is running for full-term now and is the second CSEA member who will be on the CalPERS board. He will be presenting here on Classified Institute Day. Ballots will be sent out on by August 30 and they must be returned by September 27.

- C. Grievance
Please fill out grievance forms instead of calling to address issues. This makes it easier and helps us track complaints/grievances. Link to form:

  - The governor will restore funding for the college.
  - 15 million for EOPS
  - Plus funds for student success initiative
  - The state budget has been passed before the deadline this year and includes a 1.57% cola and 1.63 growth for the college.
  - Same budget update is on the board report for more info.

- B. Governance
  - No update.

Unfinished Business:

- A.

New Business:

- A. Accreditation Update

There were 9 recommendations that needed to be addressed. Three recommendations still remain unaddressed according to the AACJC:

1. We need to strengthen and streamline our allocation process.
2. Student learning outcomes (SLO) need to be improved to acceptance levels.
3. If we are not proficient by March 15, 2014, five SLO's could go on warning again.

Adjournment: The meeting was adjourned at 12:47 p.m. Renato Loreda won the 50/50 raffle.

Next meeting: August 21, 2013 at 12:00 in the Student Center.
